

Hidden Jewel on the Jurassic Coast

Smedmore House is a very special, exclusive Dorset manor house for Weddings and Civil Ceremonies.

Hidden away in the Dorset countryside, among rolling hills with sweeping views to the sea, the timeless beauty and friendly atmosphere of Smedmore House helps create an unbelievably romantic, magical and memorable occasion.

Bespoke ceremonies

Smedmore is licensed for Civil Ceremonies. These can take place either in one of 5 elegant rooms inside the house (up to 60 guests) or outside in the grounds. The Summer House in the Walled Garden has a licence but many couples prefer to make their vows in the avenue with its views to the sea – and then to do the formalities inside the house.

The lawn at the front of the house makes an excellent marquee site with the backdrop of the Georgian house and with sea views to the side. The walled garden to the side of the house offers a delightfully sheltered spot for your drinks reception among the many exotic plants.

There are many different options available when planning your special day at Smedmore House.

- Exclusive use of the grounds, marquee site and extensive gardens for ceremony or reception for numbers up to 150 from 9am to midnight on the day of the wedding. Marquees to go up on Friday and down on Monday. NB Price of marquee not included.

Extra days for the marquee set-up will be charged for at £500 per day unless accommodation is taken in the house on those days – in which case these set-up charges are waived.

There will also be a per head charge of £10pp if you have more than 150 guests (from guest 151 onwards).

A charge will be made for electricity and water supplied to the marquee if you don't have a generator (we strongly advise hiring a generator).

The prices quoted do not include any charges made by the Registrar to conduct the wedding, the cost of the actual marquee or any catering. We can help with these though and have lists of suppliers on our website to suit every budget.
